OUR NEW PUBLICATIONS

TOWARDS LIBERTY

Being a Britisher's View Concerning India

By T. L. CROMBIE, B.A. (OXON.), BAR.-AT-LAW.

(Second Edition)

Price : As. 6 or 6d.

In the Foreword, Mrs. Besant recommends this booklet with pleasure, both to Indians and British. Written by one who has mixed largely with Indians, it speaks impartially, voicing opinions too often withheld by Indians.

THE PATH TO LEADERSHIP

By G. S. ARUNDALE, B.A., LL.B.

Being the Presidential Address to the Second Madras Students' Convention, January, 1918.

Price : As. 4 or 4d.

THE PATH TO LEADERSHIP

By G. S. ARUNDALE, B.A., LL.B.

Being the Presidential Address to the Second Madras Students' Convention, January, 1918.

Price : As. 4 or 4d.

A talk to the educated youth of India, who in the opinion of the author must shortly be called upon to act as leaders in some capacity or other. It should inspire them with high ideals, dwelling as it does on the value of hero-worship as a vital factor in the moulding of the students' future.

THE HARMONIAL PHILOSOPHY

A Compendium and Digest of the Works of ANDREW JACKSON DAVIS,
The Seer of Poughkeepsie.

The popularity of the writings of the celebrated American seer, Andrew Jackson Davis, among spiritualists and numerous schools of religious mystics, has been one of the phenomenal facts of the last half century. Investigators, however, have frequently found great difficulty in studying these psychical revelations, owing to the fact that they are comprised in twenty-seven large volumes, and that no concise summary of the teaching comprised in them has hitherto been given to the world within any moderate compass. The object of this work has been to present an impartial summary of the whole teaching of Andrew Jackson Davis as far as possible, without diminution of any kind. It is hoped this attempt to summarise the teachings of this famous seer, and thus render them accessible to a far wider public than hitherto, will meet a need of the present generation which is seeking more facts which may throw some clearer light upon the mysteries of the other world. ### A CATECHISM OF PALMISTRY

The Sciences of Chiromnomy and Chiromancy explained in the form of Question and Answer. By IDA ELLIS, Fellow of the British Institute of Mental Science (Inc.). Third Edition, largely re-written and amplified.

The object of this work is to present to all those interested in the subject of Palmistry a simple and yet complete statement of its teachings in the form of question and answer. The author has had the advantage during the course of her experience of reading tens of thousand of hands, and has thus had every opportunity of testing the rules laid down by other writers, and proving or disproving their statements for herself. [Ready

Crown 8vo, Cloth. 336 pp. 5s. net.

GONE WEST: Three Narratives of After-Death Experiences.

The work deals generally with life beyond the grave, and particularly with the Astral plane, the lowest division of the spirit plane, and with Hell. The Communications were received in two ways: Firstly, by means of automatic writing by the author when in complete trance; and, secondly, by the transference of the author to the Astral and the spirit plane during trance. The normal life of these planes of existence is explained at considerable length; and the position occupied by animals in the other world is made clear. The buildings the spirits inhabit and the clothes they wear are likewise accounted for and described. The work closes with the breaking-up of the little band of operators, who scatter, bent on helping those who are falling in the Great War.

THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

The Theosophical Society was formed at New York, November 17, 1875, and incorporated at Madras, April 3, 1905. It is an absolutely unsectarian body of seekers after Truth, striving to serve humanity on spiritual lines, and therefore endeavouring to check materialism and revive religious tendency. Its three declared objects are:

FIRST.—To form a nucleus of the Universal Brotherhood of Humanity, without distinction of race, creed, sex, caste or colour.

SECOND.—To encourage the study of comparative religion, philosophy and science.

THIRD.—To investigate the unexplained laws of nature and the powers latent in man.

THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY is composed of students, belonging to any religion in the world or to none, who are united by their approval of the above objects, by their wish to remove religious antagonisms and to draw together men of good will, whatsoever their religious opinions, and by their desire to study religious truths and to share the results of their studies with others. Their bond of union is not the profession of a common belief, but a common search and aspiration for Truth. They hold that Truth should be sought by study, by reflection, by purity of life, by devotion to high ideals, and they regard Truth as a prize to be striven for, not as a dogma to be imposed by authority. They consider that belief should be the result of individual study or intuition, and not its antecedent, and should rest on knowledge, not on assertion. They extend tolerance to all, even to the intolerant, not as a privilege they bestow, but as a duty they perform, and they seek to remove ignorance, not to punish it. They see every religion as an expression of the Divine Wisdom, and prefer its study to its condemnation, and its practice to proselytism. Peace is their watchword, as Truth is their aim.

THEOSOPHY is the body of truths which forms the basis of all religions, and which cannot be claimed as the exclusive possession of any. It offers a philosophy which renders life intelligible, and which demonstrates the justice and the love which guide its evolution. It puts death in its rightful place, as a recurring incident in an endless life, opening the gateway of a fuller and more radiant existence. It restores to the world the Science of the Spirit, teaching man to know the Spirit as himself, and the mind and body as his servants. It illuminates the scriptures and doctrines of religions by unveiling their hidden meanings, and thus justifying them at the bar of intelligence, as they are ever justified in the eyes of intuition.

Members of the Theosophical Society study these truths, and Theosophists endeavour to live them. Every one willing to study, to be tolerant, to aim high, and to work perseveringly, is welcomed as a member, and it rests with the member to become a true Theosophist.

"I HEARD A VOICE" OR THE GREAT EXPLORATION

By a King's Counsel. 6s. net.

Most interesting experiences which the author has had in spirit communication entirely by means of the psychic gifts unexpectedly discovered in his two young daughters. No assistance has been had from professional mediums. From being sceptical of the existence of any genuine power of spirit-intercourse, he has been converted to a confident belief both in the existence and in the benefit (if properly used) of such power, by the overwhelming evidence with which he has been confronted in his own family.

Sir A. Conan Doyle writes: "I have been deeply interested in this book. The whole scheme of life beyond exactly confirms many previous statements, and surely the agreement of independent witnesses must make a strong—to my mind an overwhelming—case. I would do anything to help this cause, which seems to me the greatest thing in the world."

SECOND EDITION OF PROFESSOR SIR WILLIAM BARRETT'S
ON THE THRESHOLD OF THE UNSEEN

6s. 6d. net.

This book, an expert physicist's examination of the phenomena of spiritualism, and especially of the Evidence for Survival after Death, is attracting the widest interest. An Appendix gives suggestions to inquirers who may wish to obtain evidence for themselves.

THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY was formed at New York, November 17, 1875, and incorporated at Madras, April 3, 1905. It is an absolutely unsectarian body of seekers after Truth, striving to serve humanity on spiritual lines, and therefore endeavouring to check materialism and revive religious tendency. Its three declared objects are :

FIRST.—To form a nucleus of the Universal Brotherhood of Humanity, without distinction of race, creed, sex, caste or colour.

SECOND.—To encourage the study of comparative religion, philosophy and science.

THIRD.—To investigate the unexplained laws of nature and the powers latent in man.

THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY is composed of students, belonging to any religion in the world or to none, who are united by their approval of the above objects, by their wish to remove religious antagonisms and to draw together men of good will, whatsoever their religious opinions, and by their desire to study religious truths and to share the results of their studies with others. Their bond of union is not the profession of a common belief, but a common search and aspiration for Truth. They hold that Truth should be sought by study, by reflection, by purity of life, by devotion to high ideals, and they regard Truth as a prize, to be striven for, not as a dogma to be imposed by authority. They consider that belief should be the result of individual study or intuition, and not its antecedent, and should rest on knowledge, not on assertion. They extend tolerance to all, even to the intolerant, not as a privilege they bestow, but as a duty they perform, and they seek to remove ignorance, not to punish it. They see every religion as an expression of the Divine Wisdom, and prefer its study to its condemnation, and its practice to proselytism. Peace is their watchword, as Truth is their aim.

THEOSOPHY is the body of truths which forms the basis of all religions, and which cannot be claimed as the exclusive possession of any. It offers a philosophy which renders life intelligible, and which demonstrates the justice and the love which guide its evolution. It puts death in its rightful place, as a recurring incident in an endless life, opening the gateway of a fuller and more radiant existence. It restores to the world the Science of the Spirit, teaching man to know the Spirit as himself, and the mind and body as his servants. It illuminates the scriptures and doctrines of religions by unveiling their hidden meanings, and thus justifying them at the bar of intelligence, as they are ever justified in the eyes of intuition.

Members of the Theosophical Society study these truths, and Theosophists endeavour to live them. Every one willing to study, to be tolerant, to aim high, and to work perseveringly, is welcomed as a member, and it rests with the member to become a true Theosophist.
